Accident Insurance

The Accident Compensation Corporation (ACC) provides accident insurance for all New Zealand citizens, residents, and temporary visitors to New Zealand, but you may still be liable for other medical and related costs. Further information Visas and Immigration can be viewed on the ACC website at www.acc.co.nz

Code of Practice

SIT has agreed to observe and be bound by the Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice 2016. Copies of the Code are available from the New Zealand Qualification Authority website at http://www.nzqa. govt.nz/providers-partners/education-code-of-practice/

Eligibility for Health Services

Most international students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand. If you receive medical treatment during your visit, you may be liable for the full costs of that treatment. Full details or entitlements to publicly funded health services are available through the Ministry of Health, and can be viewed on their website at www.moh.govt.nz

Medical and Travel Insurance

International students (including group students) must have appropriate and current medical and travel insurance while in New Zealand. SIT automatically organises insurance for mainstream students through the resource fee. SIT can also organise insurance for English language students and students on exchange programmes.

Full details of immigration requirements, advice on rights to employment in New Zealand while studying, and reporting requirements are available from Immigration New Zealand, and can be viewed on their website at www. immigration.govt.nz

It is important that you read SIT's Refund Policy, available at www.sit.ac.nz. Each request for refund is decided on its individual merits and there is no automatic right to a refund of fees if you change your mind about studying at SIT.

While the information provided in this document was true and correct at the time of publication, SIT reserves the right to alter or discontinue programmes, procedures, fees and regulations at any given time without notice. Students should carefully read all official correspondence and other sources of information for students, such as our website, to be aware of changes to the information contained in this document.
